200 Christmas Shoeboxes Given Away At Sycamore

On December 18th, the Sycamore Youth Center gave away 200 shoeboxes filled with Christmas gifts gathered from a number of area churches in West Virginia through the initiative of Youth Pastor Richard Davis of Open Door Baptist Church in Colliers.

Children grades Kindergarten through Eighth were welcome to pick up a box. The Sycamore Youth Center also provided some gifts as well as the Dream Big Program who gave away 50 hats and 50 pairs of gloves.

Phil Keaggy

One of the World's top Guitar players is back. Phil Keaggy will be in concert at the Sycamore Center on Sat, February 27 at 7 PM. Tickets are $35 (Artist Circle) $15 (General Admission) and $10 (Student). Tickets are limited (social distancing) so purchase them soon. To purchase tickets go to: sycamorecenter.com/events

Winter/Spring Classes

The Winter/Spring 2021 class schedule for the Sycamore Youth Center is finished and registrations are being taken for classes starting on January 19th. The 40+ classes are free of charge.

New classes added to the schedule include a 'Boys to Men' class teaching 5th-12th grade students virtues and life skills that will assist in raising up productive young men in our society. Also new is a 'Service Above Self' a community service class that will guide students in community service projects that students will come up with and then carry out in our community.

Second-semester classes run from January 19th to May 15th. All Steubenville City Schools elementary and middle school students are eligible to ride the SVRTA bus from the school to the center but need to be picked up after class.

Williamson Branch

The high-energy, traditional, family bluegrass band Williamson Branch will be live with their Bluegrass Gospel sound at the Sycamore Center on March 20, 2021. Dinner served at 5:30 p.m., with opening act Faire May beginning at 7:00. Tickets range from $10 to $50. To purchase tickets go to sycamorecenter.com/events
